Order G.O. 7-2-95 No. 255 L.

A fresh election must be held as neither of the two candidates received a majority of the votes of the President and members present at the meeting, as required by No. 6 of the election rules.

V.R. 2/2/95

M. 5.2.95

7/2/95

Nine members including the President were present. Therefore, to be elected, one or other of the candidates should have got ~~a~~ ~~majority~~ at least 5 votes. As it was it was four against three, the two candidates & the President not voting, and an openminded Mohammedan member voting for both of them. The President made a muddle of the election. He should not have let the Mohamedan member vote for both parties, and he could have obtained an absolute majority for either as it was by recording & counting his own votes.
