Again G.O., dated 189

, No.

Current No. 435 of 1895, dated 30-

- 95- from the Chairman, Mr. Coimbatore.

Order. 28.2.95-8.30.5 Minis

The dilatoriness of the municipal council in enquiring into the encroachment on the Podanur road, is unsatisfactory. The report on this subject promised in the council's resolution ^{should be sent up} will, however, be awaited. ^{without further delay.}

2. The Government cannot accept the plea of want of funds set up by the municipal council for not removing the night soil depot outside the municipal limits. ^{The Council has done better} The Collector ^{is bound by M. 1380 which should be done} will be requested to report the ^{than enough to do what is needed} result of his reference to the District Medical & Sanitary officer in the matter.

2. The Chairman on the 15th October 1894 in reply to the District Sanitary Commissioner's inspection note stated that the encroachment on the Podanur road would be injured in 3 months have elapsed & it is clear from the present resolution that no inquiry has been made.

3. Want of funds is the plea now advanced for not removing the depot outside municipal limits. As the Chairman has failed to report I am writing to the District Medical & Sanitary Officer on the subject.
