To,

The Chief Secretary to Government,
Local and Municipal Department,
MADRAS.

Sir,

(thru the Collector of South Canara).

With reference to official Memorandum dated the 6th instant, No. 149, directing me to submit the Statement called for in paragraph 2 of Government Order, dated 11th September 1894, No. 1775 L, regarding verification of Service Books, I have the honor to report that several of the employees of this Municipality, particularly the old employees entertained in the department before 1888, had not maintained Service Books, although they appear to have been called upon to open them, with reference to Government Order dated 25th July 1888, No. 1375 L, Local and Municipal.

2. Since the receipt of the Government order under reference, however, these employees have prepared their Service Books, but many of
