Note.

The idea is to save the expenditure upon the establishment charges necessary in a Union by employing other agency to supervise the sweepers. Govt. has in several recent cases refused to constitute unions in places where the same has been so small as to be nearly all taken up by the establishment.

20TH FEBRUARY 1895, No. 324 L., LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From H. BRADLEY, Esq., President, District Board, Coimbatore, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 8th January 1895, Disposal No. 17-D.B.

In continuation of paragraphs 2 and 3 of my letter, dated 22nd December 1894, Disposal No. 896-D.B., giving cover to the budget for 1895-96, I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to abolish the unions at Perundurai, Kangayam, Aravakurchi and Chinna Dhárápúram as proposed by the Erode taluk board.

2. Chinna Dhárápúram is a very small village. It contains only 1,815 inhabitants and 372 houses. It is altogether too insignificant to be given a panchayat to control its sanitation.

The other three unions extend over a very large area and contain so many scattered hamlets that a panchayat cannot satisfactorily supervise the sanitation of them all, while it is almost impossible to collect house-tax over so large an area, without excessive expenditure on establishment. Perundurai is a Deputy Tahsildar's head-quarter station and the present staff of sweepers will be placed under his control. There are Deputy Tahsildars at Kangayam and Aravakurchi and also medical subordinates, to either of whom the supervision of the sanitation of the villages may be entrusted. There is no reason to fear that the sanitary condition of these places will in any way suffer for want of a local panchayat.

3. A draft notification is enclosed for approval.

ORDER—dated 20th February 1895, No. 324 L., Local and Municipal.

The proposed abolition of the unions referred to is approved and the following notification will be published in the Fort St. George and Coimbatore District Gazettes:—

NOTIFICATION.

Under section 6 of the Madras Local Boards Act, V of 1884, the Governor in Council is pleased to cancel from 1st April 1895 (1) so much of Notification No. 59, published at page 66 of Part I-A of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated December 16th, 1885, as relates to the unions of Perundurai, Kangayam and Aravakurchi in the Coimbatore district, and (2) Notification No. 206, published at page 64 of Part I-A of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated May 12th, 1891, relating to Chinna Dhárápúram union in the said district.

The aforesaid unions will cease to exist from the 1st April 1895, and the union panchayats will be dissolved.
