FOR ORDERS.

With G.O. dated 11th July 1892 No. 1606 L a copy of Professor Unwin's work on "The testing of materials of construction" was forwarded to each District Board. The Accountant General having then demanded payment of its value from the District Boards it was decided in G.O. dated 15th November 1894 No. 2357 L that the cost of the book should be borne by the Government, as it was supplied to them,

Although
~~when~~ they did not apply for it ~~at all~~. The Presidents of the District Boards of Kistna, Tinnevelly, Madura and South Canara request that a copy of the book may now be furnished to them, as the one forwarded with the Government Order above referred to has not been received× ~~by them~~. As the books which were sent by post appear to have been miscarried, the Presidents of District Boards may be informed of this, and told that, should they still require it, they will have to purchase it from the Superintendent of Stationery at Calcutta.

× This is a curious matter 4 districts say that they did not get the book which is a valuable one. [illegible] no use regretting now however

Seen W 18.2.95

Probably none of them will want it now.
