I have the honor to be

Yours most obedient servant,

Chairman

the temporary appointment of a constable (Government) is a matter of absolute necessity. Not only is it a matter of difficulty to get proper men at short notice but the staff is insufficient, but the night of emergency the collection of rates and so forth of course. This is a serious matter when the collection of rates is concerned.

Sir,

I am forwarding herewith a resolution of the Council (at its meeting held on the 29th ultimo) to appoint a temporary sanitary inspector on Rs 15 per mensem as a substitute to the permanent sanitary inspector who was sent for training in accordance with G.O. No 1914 in dated 10th December 1894. I have the honor to state that this temporary appointment (though against the general principles laid down by Government) is a matter of absolute necessity. Not only is it extremely difficult to get proper work out of the subordinate staff unsupervised, but they might at any moment be called on to meet an outbreak of cholera. This is a season when cholera is always liable
