From

M. A. Murchin, Esq., C.E.,
Asst. Secretary Enquiries, Southern Circle,
Trichinopoly.

To

The District Magistrate
Trichinopoly.

Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that on the 13th Instant a body was cremated by the villagers of Kambarasampettai in the sandy bed of the river within a furlong of the collecting wells for the Town Water Supply.

As there has been a lot of correspondence about burning & burial grounds in the neighbourhood of collecting grounds for Water Supply and the obvious necessity of removing them I have the honor to request you to pass prohibitory orders to prevent recurrence till Government sanction for a permanent prohibition can be obtained.

I have &c
