To

The Chief Secretary to Government,

Sir,

In reply to Government order dated 18th December 1894, No. 1983 M. Dis. calling for explanation for failure to collect the private scavenging fees in advance and for the continued fall in the work of the midwife, I have the honor to state, that the system of levying the fees in advance was not known to the nuisance inspector, who was entrusted with the duty in 1892-93. The prevailing impression in the minds of the people has also been, that advance payment is not required. Steps have since been taken to remove this impression. The difficulty in the collection is due not so much to the payment being demanded in advance as to the demand having been

Carelessly prepared originally without reference to the houses which were served.
No written Consent was obtained from the house owners and it is now found, that names of persons, who did not avail themselves of the arrangement have been inserted in the demand list. The amounts entered as due from such persons for the last two years have to be written off by the Council.

2. As for the midwife, who did not show a sufficient number of cases I beg to state, that she has been transferred and another has since been appointed, from whom better work is expected.

3. The arrears in tolls for the year 1893-94 have been collected. Of the amounts embezzled by the lake manager of this office Rs. 787-8-0 relate to tolls.
Rs. 100-0-0 out of this sum belongs to the year 1893-94. The Manager has No property from which to recover this and the other sums misappropriated and the Council have resolved to require the lake Chairman to make good the Amount as being responsible for the loss.

A Copy of the resolution is submitted.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Yours most obed^t servant

Brubakhan
Chairman.
