Sir,

In forwarding herewith copy of the Council's Resolution No: 3 dated 21st current, on letter No: 204 dated 19-12-94 from President - Dindigul Taluq Board (copy enclosed) I have the honor to request that Government may be pleased to direct the payment of a contributio amounting amounting to half the net cost towards the maintenance of the Women and Children's hospital in Dindigul — the establishment of which was sanctioned in G. O. 25th January 1894, No: 84 L. Mis:

2. The original understanding of the Council when the institution was started was that the Municipality will be subsidized by the Local Board in the shape of contributions of a moiety of the total cost of its maintenance.

3. Under the present financial circumstances of the Council with the Water Supply Scheme on hand, it will not be in a position to defray the entire or more than half the charges of the Hospital in question from Municipal funds. The Council has

has also resolved to establish a separate hospital for men which proposal is now pending before Government.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
