The marginally noted Kanda-bandam Inam covered by title deed no. 935 was granted for the upkeep of a well situated in the village of Ganikallu in Adoni Taluk. The inamdar and his heirs are reported to have left the village prior to the famine of 1876-77 and their whereabouts are not traceable. The well was repaired at the cost of Government in 1876-77, apparently as a famine work, but the exact circumstances under which it was repaired cannot be ascertained.

2. The inam has been under attack ment since fasli 1295 and full assessment levied from the cultivator for the area cultiend of fasli 1303 is Rs 40. 10. 8. Why the inam

3. The well being very useful to the villagers, its maintenance is necessary. I recommend that the income may be resumed and the assessment thereof transferred to the Taluk Board, Adoni, which has consented to maintain the well in good repair.

4. The Taluk Board, however, hopes that the income derived from the inam lands, viz Rs 40-10-8 collected whilst it was under attachment may also be made over to it. The well is at present in good repair and there is no necessity for immediate repairs and hence no necessity to make over the amount to the Taluk Board.

5. Copy of the Taluk Board's resolution is herewith sent.
