I Read G.O. No. 87 M dated 19 January 1895 reviewing the Vaniyambadi Municipal Budget for 1895-96.

Resolution: -

The Council respectfully Submit that their proposal in the matter of house tax Collection work has been misunderstood. What was asked for was not an Assistant Bill Collector on 2 Rupees but a Servant to the Assistant Bill Therewith how the Collector called him.

Bill

Bill Collector. ^{One} Bill Collector already has such a servant (on 4 Rupees), and the object of the Council was to give a similar help to the Assistant Bill Collector.
 The Council would therefore request that the proposal be allowed to stand, as it is a very necessary one.

~~THROUGH THE COLLECTOR~~
~~WID~~

Sir,

In forwarding herewith a copy of the Council's resolution requesting Government to sanction its proposal (disallowed by Government as stated in para 5 of G.O. dated 19th January 1895 No. 87 M) in regard to the appointment of a servant on Rs 2 to the 2nd or Assistant bill Collector, I have the honor to state that at present there are two bill Collectors on Rs 12 + 8 respectively. The former has got a peon on Rs 4, and the Council proposed to

to give similar help to the 2nd bill Collector, who was appointed during the current year and who has an equal amount of work of the same description.
I would point out that a bill Collector, while performing his duty, has to carry with him the bill books, an ink-bottle and money (mostly Copper) that comes to his hand from door to door, and has also to attach property on warrants issued in case of non-payment, and to arrange for the transmission of the property so attached for safe custody.
It is unnecessary to state that it is highly inconvenient for a man to have to do all this by himself. Collection work is by no means easy in Vanijam-bady, and I repeatedly receive complaints from the bill Collector that they are obstructed and molested by ^{the} Mohamedans, when entering their houses

houses for distraint of property.
According to the Josha system among the Mohamedans, the bill Collector cannot enter a Mohamedan's house ^{from} ~~entrance~~ to attach property until the females have had time to retire, and advantage is taken of this to obstruct and annoy him. Yet, on the unsupported report of the bill Collector that they are obstructed in the discharge of their work, I found it is difficult to procure sanction for prosecution or a conviction in the Court, as they have no witnesses to prove the offence. If a bill Collector should have a peon to assist him in the distraint of property, it will not only facilitate his work but also strengthen his hands in such cases. Considering all the to above facts, and further that the profession bet tax in the coming year will cause the a considerable increase of work to the an Collection agency, I respectfully I request Government to reconsider their order, and to allow the employment of a Peon on Repeas 2. The original refusal of Government would appear to be a due to the view of the Collector (Supported by Government) that a boy could not be entrusted with responsible work. This of course was never the intention of the Council. All that they proposed was an extension of a system which has already with the full approval of Government been in existence for some years.
