Most respectfully Sheweth,

It was submitted in a former petition dated 23rd July 1894 that this town

Municipality have passed a resolution to the effect that a piece of porombake land lying within this town, which is expressly declared as an entire Inam village, may be sold in auction. It was at the same time requested that orders may be issued directing the Municipality not to interfere with such lands, — lands which they have no control

Sir,

With reference to the enclosed petition from the Karur Devasthanam Manager bearing your endorsement No. 716 dated 27th Aug. 1894, I have the honor to submit the following remarks:

- 2 The Manager claims all the vacant sites within the Municipal limits of Karur and relying on Government order dated 10th October 1890, No. 795. Revenue, prays that the sale of two sites proposed by the Council may be stopped.

The order referred to, merely transfers to the Devasthanam Committee as inamdar 18.33 acres of Puraamboke land treated as belonging to Government and does not relate to Municipal lands. It cannot have been intended, that they should go to the Devasthanam, as the only competent Authority, that could convey them, was the Town

Council

The humble petition of S. Sreenivasathaachari Deoasthaneem Manager Karur Tq.
Coimbatore Dt.

Most Respectfully Sheweth

That it has been settled and laid down in G.O. No. 795 dated 10-10-1890, that Karur is an entire Maam Village and consequently all the Poromboke lands of the Village belong to the Karur Deoasthaneem.

2 That such being the case, the Municipal body of Karur frequently take into their heads to interfere with the above said Poromboke lands and the trees standing thereon.

3 That it is now learnt that the Municipal Council have in a recent resolution, ordered that a piece of Poromboke land, belonging to Deoasthaneem situated to the east of Meevisany Madalais shop in Bazaar street in Karur town be sold away.

And further that another piece of similar Poromboke land lying between the Karur and Panchamadivi Channels, in the midst of Karur town. On having been applied for on Durkaal for house site
