to formally delegate those powers to the Chairman but in the ~~Dratting~~ hall on the 25th February/95 it was decided that "In the absence of any provision in Act IV of 1843 empowering the Council to delegate any such powers to the Chairman, the proposal must fall through."

4. It is found that the exercise of these powers only after sanction of the Council at their meetings involves additional work and undesirable delay without any corresponding benefit.

5. If the Government also thinks that such powers cannot be exercised by the Chairman independently of sanction of the Council I request that the Draft Dray be referred to the Select Committee from whom the bill for Amendment of the Act is now receiving consideration.
