May not a D.O. be sent to Col. Moore as in last year, asking him whether he considers Ramaswami Chettyar to be efficient and fit for further service.

11/7/95 The man is however very nearly 61 years of age; Col. Moore was not enthusiastic about him this time last year; & para 5 of G.O.
dated 16th Oct. '94 N^o 1471. shows that the Revenue work was not well done in 1893-94.

My dear Moore,

The Accountant General has reported that the extension allowed to Ramaswami Chettyar, the Revenue Officer in S.O. of 4th June 1894 No. 699m, will expire on the 31st instant. Will you kindly let me know whether you still consider him efficient and fit for further work, or whether you think it desirable that he should be compulsorily retired.

Yours sincerely,

In G.O. ^{699m} 4-694 the present Revenue Officer of the Madras Municipality was permitted to remain on till March 31st 95, & the Acct. General was asked to bring the matter to notice again before then.

He now writes up accordingly.

Last year Col. Moore was asked D.O. whether the Revenue Officer was in his opinion efficient & fit for further work or whether he should be compulsorily retired. His reply was not enthusiastic & ran as follows: - "I cannot conscientiously say that Ramasami Chetty is not efficient & fit for further work - To a similar D.O. recently sent him he replies: - "I cannot say that I think it desirable that the Revenue Officer should be compulsorily retired on account of inefficiency or unfitness for further work."

The man is now 61, and para 5 of G.O. dated 16th Oct 94 No. 1471 shows that the Revenue work was not well done in 1893-94.

Submitted, however, that on the strength of Col. Moore's letter a year's extension may be sanctioned as before.

11/3/95

I have spoken to Col. Moore on the subject and he wishes R. Chetty retained for this year at any rate
