ORDER.

2/3-6-95 No 600
In the course of reviewing the various Municipal Budgets for 1895-96 the Govt. has been so impressed that ~~the~~ the supervising staff in the sanitary departments bears very largely varying relations to the establishment supervised by it. In many cases the cost of the supervising staff appears to be needlessly ~~superior~~ ^{out of proportion to} the ~~cost of~~ ^{inferior} the establishment & to the numbers of hands upon it. The Sanitary Comm. & its Deputy will accordingly be requested to notice this point in all future Inspection Notes upon Municipal Towns, & to report what economies are possible in each case.
