Sir,

With reference to para 3 of G.O. dated 22nd January 1895 No. 103 M, I have the honor to state that the ^{term} Private market has not been properly defined in the act.
The Council is under the impression that a place where meat is sold is a market and so the shop keeper ought to take out a license from the Municipal Council under section 196 of the municipal act.
Now it is remarked that no licenses are necessary for butcher's shops and vegetable sellers. The Council therefore feels some doubt as to the meaning of the word Private market and requests instructions from Government

The term "private market" has not been defined in the District Municipalities Act IV of 1884, but the Bill to amend the act which has been lately published in the Fort Saint George Gazette contains a definition of it. At present the Municipal Council should be guided by the ruling contained in G.O. dt
