Councils frequently endeavour to get bits of Govt. land by interpreting the definition of "street" in this manner. The revised Municipal Act gives a clearer definition which will obviate further trouble.

house is "adjacent to" the road in a commonsense application of the term. It could not have been intended to vest all waste ground between the road way and the nearest house in the council. Here plots 9 feet and 17 feet wide as shown in the accompanying plan are claimed as "street" by the Council.

4. The Chairman's letter of the 11th November, 1893, received in this office through the Sub Collector on the 16th idem, was returned to him by the Collector with Endorsement No 39 dated 22nd November 93 for remarks as to the right of the Municipality to the lots in question. The Sub Collector referred it to the Tahsildar of Dindigul, whose report was received in his office on the 4th Instant. The Sub Collector has with his letter referred to in para 1, resubmitted the papers.

From

The Chief Secretary to Government,
Local & Municipal Department,

Sir,

1 Letter No. 256 dated 18th February 95 from the Chairman Municipal Council, Dindigul, to the Chief Secretary to Government, with enclosures
2. Letter No. 177 dated 11th November 93, from the Chairman Municipal Council, Dindigul, to the Chief Secretary to Government with enclosures

I have the honor to submit the marginally noted letters from the Chairman Municipal Council, Dindigul, with the following remarks, and copy of Sub Collector's letter Dis No. 488 of 1895, dated 14th March 1895 and enclosures as per list.

2 I do not agree with the Sub Collector that the 3 lots situated to the east of the road vest in the Council under Section 23 of Act IV of 1884, but take the Tahsildar's view that none of the five lots is so vested.

3 The definition of street in my opinion, does not include the land between roadway and main wall, unless the house

case of road poramboke sold to Innasi Cowunden for the construction of a Chuttram cancelled the sale, as it subsequently found that it had no power to dispose of road poramboke lands.

4. The piece marked Innasi Cowunden's Chuttram in the plan was held not to vest in the Council and the same consideration would seem to apply to the plots adjoining it. The 3 sites on the opposite side of the road do vest, I think, in the Council, as they are between the roadway and the walls.

In returning herewith your R. C. No $\frac{39}{\text{Municipal}}$ of 93, dated 22nd November 93 with its enclosures, I have the honor to forward herewith Dindigul Tahsildar's arzi No $\frac{138}{25\text{-}2\text{-}95}$ with its enclosures, and to report as follows:-

2 The Dindigul Municipality requests sanction for the sale of 5 lots of land as noted in the margin, on the ground that the lands are situated between the main walls of the houses and the roadway and consequently they vest in the Municipal Council under Section 23 of Act IV of 1884.

2 lots in Survey No 790 of Pallapatti village and classed as Road poramboke.
3 lots lie west of the houses and east of the road, entered as village site poramboke of Adiyanuthu village
5. No 22.

3 The Tahsildar states that though these lands lie within municipal limits, yet as they are poramboke lands, they do not vest in the Council, that out of the 5 lots, two being road poramboke, the Municipality has no right to dispose of them in as much as the Municipality has, in a similar case
