As the tax is one levied on arts and professions and not on income, the proposal of the Municipal Council cannot be approved; but the Council can propose the exemption of any class or classes of trades specified in the schedule A to act IV of 1884.

that those whose annual income is Rs 90 or less be exempted from the payment of the profession tax. They think that any taxation on these poor people will be a hardship. I request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction for this exemption.

included a large number of persons - following various professions, such as tailors, brick-layers, blacksmiths, Carpenters, basket-makers and others whose income is extremely low. Their Condition in life which is only better than that of daily labourers is far below that of public or private servants or employees the minimum of whose taxable income is Rs 30 a month. Any taxation on these men on account of their petty professions will ^{be} a great hardship. They came
