MUNICIPAL COUNCIL ELLORE.

To,

The Chief Secretary to Government Fort St. George
Madras

Sir,

In enclosing herewith an extract from the Proceedings of the Council dated 5th April 1896 No. IV, I have the honor to state that the site was first applied for by Mr. R. Ry Chunduri Subbarayudu Garu and its sale was recommended by the Council vide this Office letter No. 58 dated 30th June 1891 and that its sale was refused by Government in their Proceedings No. 1215 M. M. dated 3rd August 1891.

The site is now again applied for by Chunduri Lakshminarayana the above applicants saw for raising pials. There is a great nuisance committed there every day. To prevent the said nuisance the Council resolved to recommend the grant of site within the drain on condition of raising pials for public use, and on condition of removing it when required by the Municipality, on an annual rental of Rs. 4-4-0. I further beg to state that by granting the site, no inconvenience is caused to the public.

Under those circumstances, I request that you will be pleased to place the matter before Government and obtain sanction for granting the site.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant
