SIR,

About 40 cents of Cornam service Inam in the village of Magam, Anulapudi Taluk, was taken up in 1889 for a Local Fund Road by private negotiation. Racharla Ramayya, the owner, of the land, misrepresented it to be a personal Inam and received a money compensation of Rs 120 therefor. His brother Subbarayudu having subsequently brought this to light, the Sub Collector recovered the amount from Ramayya and proposed compensation in form of a fresh grant of land. But Ramayya is not willing to accept compensation in any form other than money, and contends that the Inam is personal and threatens the Collector with a suit. The case has, therefore,

Misc 30/4/95

The Government does not consider that a notification under Act I of 1894 can have retrospective effect so as to validate the irregular procedure of acquiring the land before any such notification issued.
Nor would it be right to insert in this notification, the name of the original owner of the land who has already parted with his rights as being still in possession of such land. The proposed notification cannot therefore be published. The suit of the suit which Ramayya proposes to file against the Collector should be avoided.

note
For a precedent please see G.O. dt 13-5-94 No 1087 L. The land was paid for and occupied by the Board so long ago as 1889 and the dispute now is whether compensation should take the form of money or fresh land. G.O. No. 575 dated 23/3/93
