under Contemplation to remove it elsewhere, when the necessity for a Basalchi will be greater. The want of a Basalchi for the purposes above indicated was much felt and one was therefore appointed.

2. The Taluk Board is of opinion that the establishment is necessary and copies of its resolutions in the matter are enclosed,

President District Board Timmelly.

To

The Chief Secretary, to Government Fort Saint George

Sir,

Referring to para 2 of Government Order dated 9th February, 1895 No. 261 L, Local and Municipal, declining to approve of the entertainment of a Masalchi in the office of the Timmelly Taluk Board, in the absence of anything to establish the necessity for that servant, I have the honor to state that an attender only is attached to the office and he is employed on clerical work. There is no servant to sweep the office room and keep it clean, to take kopal to Post office and deliver letters to officers at the Head Quarters.
The office is, at present, located in one of the rooms of the Collector's Cutcherry and it is under.

7th July 1894 Setting forth the necessity for the appointment of a Masalchi for the President's office.

The appointment is approved and Rs 40 sanctioned from the Reserve.
