Staff here consists of only one Clerk; and the Registrar of births and deaths is also saddled with the duties of Sheriff.
In obedience to the aforesaid L. O., every possible attempt has been made to get through their additional work without prejudice to the current duties which are onerous, and yet it has been practically found that hardly any appreciable quantity of the work of the amendment of the records has been turned out, while the current duties have thoroughly and satisfactorily been performed.

3. As matters stand, the Council has resolved upon the appointment of a Special Clerk on Rs 10 a month for three months at the most, on the understanding that this work cannot possibly be got through by the existing limited establishment, and accordingly I have to request that the sanction of Government may be obtained for this proposal, the cost being met from the existing balance.

It may hardly be superfluous to state that in Bangalore and other Municipalities, one provision appears to have been made for the employment of Special

Clerks

Sir,

Discharge dated the 6th September 1894, No 1223. In this it was ordered that the existing clerical establishment shall be required to attend to the work of arranging the records with an extra remuneration. The arrangement of the records, it will be seen to be duty heavily and additionally imposed in pursuance of Circular No I of 1894 from the Assistant Accountant General and Inspector Local Funds, Secy. Medias. In this office the records from the year 1886 when this municipality was constituted have to be arranged without any necessary delay.

I am Sir, Obedient that the Clerical Staff
