SIR,

With reference to para 4(2) of Government Order No. 273. In passing orders on the budget of the Trichinopoly Municipal Council for 1895-96, I have the honour to state that after personally inspecting the existing flight of steps leading to the Municipal Office, I find that the construction of a new flight is very necessary. The present stair case is so steep and narrow as to be almost dangerous, especially for stout people.

2. The flight of steps is of considerable length, as the office is located upstairs. I
