Chairman's reply to the Deputy Sanitary Commissioner's remarks in his inspection notes recorded in G.O. 26-2-95, No 802.

Para 1. When any new streets are being built, the Council will see that they are properly laid out on approved plans with a view to preserve sanitation & check overcrowding.

Para 2. The evil of the existence of many thatched houses in the parochies and poorer quarters can only be eradicated in course of time. The Council have already resolved upon prohibiting thatching within a certain area, and are glad to note that much improvement has resulted thereby and hope that ere long improvements will be effected in the quarters above mentioned.

Para 3. The condition of the roads has greatly improved since the inspection of the Deputy Sanitary Commissioner.

The maintenance of roads in Tutuora is more difficult & expensive than many other Municipal towns in the Presidency in as much as the soil of Tutuorua is altogether sandy and the traffic passing on the roads is enormous.

The Council are giving their best attention to the roads and are confident that their exertions will be thoroughly appreciated in the course of this year by which time they expect to put all the roads in good order.

As regards using of harder stones for the roads suggested by the Deputy Sanitary Commissioner by which he probably means granite stones, the Council think the cost will be great & almost prohibitive. The matter can however be fully discussed at a meeting when the Sanitary Commissioner or his Deputy comes here next time. Crisady Lane, remarked in the inspection report, is a place mostly inhabited by fishermen & it was visited early in the morning before the Municipal Cart visited the place. Refuse after fish cleaning was the ~~refuse~~ ^{refuse} found in the said lane. The people have been warned about it. As regards some of the lanes being used as latrines, the Council note with regret that the present Municipal Cart does not afford them sufficient facilities to check such nuisances, which can be considerably mitigated if the Police will only devote some attention to the same.

Para ~~11~~¹² New sites have already been selected & it is hoped they will be passed in a meeting at an early date.

Para ~~11~~¹² The suggestions are noted & will be given effect to.
