To Petitioner. P.O.

especially to the spirit of "10 A (2)" under Section IX as I feel it a curse on Municipalities that too many relatives, masters and servants to be allowed to continue as members of Municipalities—a state of things requiring in my opinion immediate reformation.

To wait till the term of such members expires gives only room to play atrocities at the time when such new Act will be in force.

I can only make this sort of suggestion indicating public interest if it commends itself to Your Excellency.

I most humbly beg

May it please Your Excellency

In continuation of my previous suggestions in connection with the amendment of Act IV of 1884 which seem to have been appreciated by Government, I have now ventured to make another suggestion on Section IX in the Bill to amend that act as revised by the Select Committee. When the bill is passed into law, I solicit the favour of giving retrospective effects to the provisions contained in Section IX more
