(through the Collector, Krishna District)

Sir,

In submitting herewith the Council's resolution dated 30-3-95 recommending gratuity of Rs 42 to Dalavoy Venkanna late peon whose services have been dispensed with by me on account of his old age, I have the honor to report that the man served the Municipality faithfully for about 29 years without a blot upon his conduct and to request that the Council's recommendation for his gratuity be favourably considered by the Government. Application for gratuity is herewith enclosed.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

V. Bhavanachari

The Chair Man & Commissioners of the Municipality

Most Honored Sir.

The humble petition of D. Venkannah, the late Municipality begs, the above officers to consider the claim for my further protection.

Sir.
As I being old man I have been served with notice, whereas I served in this Dept. from the very beginning of the Municipality & my Superiors had been well satisfied with my duty

Sir. I am a very poor & quite unable to maintain further myself, together with my family, without your honors assistance, because, I being a old & either gets pension, or, any such sort, except depending on your honor.

I therefore solicit your honor will be kind enough to consider of me, favouring the same post to my heir, & also protect me with the above grativity.

For which act of kindness & generosity
I shall ever pray for your long life & prosperity.

I beg to remain
Most Hd Sir
Your Most Obedt St
D. Venkannah
late Municipality
