SUBJECT,

Municipal Chairman Nellore.

NELLORE COLLECTOR'S OFFICE,
DATED 18th April 1895.

No. 717

From K. C. Manaudan Raja Esqr.

Acting Collector of Nellore.

To the Chief Secretary to Government,
Local and Municipal Department, Madras.

Sir,

Mr. C. T. Saldanha, the Assistant Surgeon and Chairman of the Nellore Municipality having vacated the Chairmanship on 28th March 1895, consequent on his transfer from the district, I have the honor to nominate one of the Councillors Mr. N. George Karain now known as Chairman of the Municipality. The nominee is a District Court Clerk and is conversant with municipal matters having been Chairman of the Ongole Municipality for some time where he is reported to have worked well. Besides, many of the Councillors and leading men of the place as well as himself desire his appointment.

Mr. Saldanha the Asst. Surg. who was put in charge of the Nellore Municipality has been transferred.
The Col. recommends Mr. R. N. Surigay as Chairman of the Municipality.

Note.

Mr. R. N. Surigay was Chairman of the Municipality in 1887-88. The admin. of the Municipality in 1887-88 was characterized by as anything but satisfactory. That in 1888-89 was considered to have shown fairly satisfactory progress except in regard to vaccination & sanitation.

In his O. O. of 2-11-94 (in 80.29-11-94 no 1826m) his logbook refers to Surigay as follows in the following terms: - "He was Chairman in 1887-88 for some time & is an honest man, but I doubt very much his being strong enough to manage the Council."

As however the present Col. recommends him & the leading members of the place desire his appointment, it is submitted that he may be given a trial.

The woman appears hardly the right sort of man for the post but he might have a trial as proposed above.

He hardly seems 2/5/95
to be the right man for the place. The worst of trying such preliminary, as suggested, is that if he proves inefficient we can't get rid of him.

FOR ORDERS.

In January last the system of having a paid Chairman at Nellore came to an end and Mr. Saldanha the Assistant Surgeon was gazetted.

2. In March the latter was transferred and a vakil named Surigay Karayan Rao nominated in his place. This nomination was not approved and the Collector was asked d.o. to see if he could not find a stronger man. It was at the same time suggested that it might be well to have an official chairman.

3. In reply he nominates three officials who might hold the appointment - Mr.
Kenney, Mr. Saldanha's successor, Mr. Pope
the Assistant Collector and the Treasury Deputy Collector.

4. Mr. Kenney is unwilling to undertake the work on the ground of inexperience and Mr. Pope has not yet passed his examinations. There remains the Treasury Deputy Collector, who has been ascertained to be P. Krasuruni Rajadar lately transferred from general duty at Siddharattam. If he is new to Treasury work he will have plenty to do without managing the Municipality.

5. In the meanwhile another vakil, G. Taganikula Rajadar, has suggested himself and has suggested by the inhabitants (C nos 1378 and 1501 m). From the fact, however, that the Collector has not forwarded this proposal, which was made to him also, it was may be presumed that he is not in favor of it.

6. The choice therefore seems to lie between the original nominee Surja Narayan Rao and the Treasury Deputy Collector.
