PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following paper:—

From the District Magistrate, Salem, dated 2nd March 1895, N^o 241, submitting a report on the working of the Salem Bench Court, commenting on the entire absence of nuisance cases and of a few only of encroachment suits, but hoping with improved Municipal administration that the numbers will increase; recommending the creation of a second Bench with 10 Honorary Magistrates at Shornalpet to be presided over by the Salem Stationary Magistrate, with an establishment on the same scale as that for the present court and referring the question raised by the President ^{(the proposal in} which however does not commend itself to him) whether, in view of the fact that almost all fines are credited to the Municipality, that institution should not bear the cost of the establishment of Bench Courts.
