I may state for the information of the District -- Board that the Company is prepared to construct and maintain that portion of the road which will be within its own premises, and also to consent to its being open to the public provided the remaining portion to the Lunatic Asylum is constructed by the District Board. The Com - pany cannot however contribute towards the cost of any portion of the road outside its own premises, and I -- would request that the matter may be again brought before the District Board for their favourable consideration.
