of Kilakkottai.

Pattas issued in my name for 57-2 gulas of garden puzh land, South of the new market building at Kilakkottai. I produce the registered deed purporting to show that my husband Chinna Nadan purchased the said land for Rs 600 from one Mukka Nadan of the place.
I have got it back now. The land is now asked of me for purposes of the market. It has cost me Rs 400 in all for levelling the land and widening and deepening a well situated in it. If a sum of Rs 1000 (Rs 600 cost price + 400 costs incurred) is paid by Government, I will consent to part with the land. The present market site was purchased from Subbaya Panikkan and Nagappa Panikkan. If compensation is to be awarded to me at the rate settled for that, I submit that my land is more valuable and is likely to yield 100 Kalam a year including Kalam and Kodai and request that Rs 1200 may be ordered to be paid to me.

To

Chief
The Secretary to Government,

Madras.

Sir, In reply to Memorandum of Government dated 30th November 1894. No. 1374, I have the honor to state that the Acting Sub-Collector reports that the extent of the present market site at Nilakkottai is 3.84 acres and that the market is the largest in the Taluk after Tirindign C. The site is too small to hold all the cattle now brought there so that they are now kept outside the market site along the road which is a nuisance. I know the place and am satisfied that the extension is necessary.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
