15th September 1895 from the District
Local Fund Engineer, Madras.

I have the honor to request you will be good enough to let me know if I can consider 11 days leave which I granted to my Head draftsman from 20th April 1895 to 30th idem to enable him to attend the following, Government Technical Examinations held at Rajahmundry, as Examination leave under article 317 of the Civil Service Regulations

| a. Surveying & levelling | } Elementary
Tests |
| b. Earthwork & Road making | |
| c. Building materials & construction | |

2. This officer is desirous of entering Executive Service and as such these Examinations are necessary to qualify him for the same. He was therefore permitted to appear for them;
and he has to his credit passed in all the Examinations (in the first class and as first in the Presidency in a & b and in the 2nd class in c.)

3. The Examinations held were on the 22nd, 26th and 27th and hence 11 days
leave were required.

4. If Government Sanction
is

is necessary for considering the leave as Examination leave, I request that it may be obtained.

Refon Cus 1706/95 (52)

Submitted to the Chief Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal Department, for sanction of sanctioning the leave to the Draftsman under article 317 of Civil Service Regulations.

The Treasury Deputy Collector also says that Government sanction is necessary.
