The petn states that the late Mr. G. Krishnaswami Aiya Sub Registrar of Pallikonda got a petition prepared by some ryots who used to frequent his office, praying to constitute Pallikonda and some other surrounding villages in to a Union. They learn that this prayer has been granted and is to be given effect to. Against this they submit that both Pallikonda and Kilachur contain only 700 houses in all, that the grouping of many villages for the above purpose is against the Rules, that the village in question is inhabited by poor men who are already oppressed by toll collections; and pray that the proposal in question may be abandoned.
