Most honoured Sir

I have been a servant of the choultry for the last six years. As an evidence that I have done my duty satisfactorily I herewith send copies of remarks made by the official authorities in Visiting Book when they came either to superintend to take lodgings there. So I humbly request your honour to restore me to my former post. For this act of kindness the poor petitioner shall, as in duty bound, pray for your honour's long life & prosperity.

I beg to remain

Most honorable Sir
CURRENT No. 6662

The humble appeal petition of Suddanur Raghavaya late Choultry Brahmin Suddanur Local Fund Choultry Ongole Taluk most respectfully sheweth - the pay of the man is not more than Rs 5 - 10 Statt 3 of the budget, perhaps

That your humble petitioner begs to appeal against the order of the President of the Ongole Taluk Board dismissing the petitioner from service and appointing in his place one Mogiti Subbaya as the servant of Suddanur Choultry. The same order was confirmed by the President of Board Nellore.
Ever since your petitioner's appointment as a servant of the Choultry for the last 5 years, the Muniff of the village has been trying to repudiate themselves or have reports sent by the villagers) against the petitioner, because petitioner's father is in bad terms with the village Munsiff and the Revenue Inspector of the Range

3 That he is now dismissed on a similar report of the Munsiff at a time when the Revenue Inspector reported against his father who is a Karmam of the place.

4 That the petitioner was fined Rs 1 by the President of the Taluk Board on a similar report of the Munsiff, but the petitioner could not appeal to the President as he was given to understand that no appeal lay against small fines

5 That there are no specific charges against the petitioner and that even the order of dismissal does not set forth grounds.

6 That it is illegal on the part of the Talukdar (who was influenced by the Revenue Inspector) and the Subcollector to have believed the words of the village Munsiff who has been in enimical terms with the petitioner's family. Since the petitioner's father Cormam of Dandanki reported against the very village Munsiff for misappropriating some 40 trees in the Munaba ground and it is still under enquiry before the Sub Collector and dismissed him. Government officers in high position Certified in the visitor's Book of the Choultry to the effect that the petitioner was doing his duties properly

7. He then prays in Conclusion that your honor will be good enough to call for the records and peruse them and restore the appellant to his post.

8. He further prays that the Dy Talukdar of Dandanki may be ordered to report the conduct of the appellant if necessary

9. For which act of Kindness the petitioner is in duty bound
