LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

Again G.O., dated 189 , No.
Current No. 1446 M. of 1896, dated 13th April from the Chairman, M.C. Bezwada
Current No. of 189 , dated from the

FOR ORDERS.

The Chairman appears to have been in unnecessary hurry in this matter and to have wasted money in sending so many telegrams. As a matter of fact the tax was paid before the close of the official year and the Chairman would have done well to have waited after sending the first or second telegram. There seems to be no reason why the Manager should pay the cost of the telegrams.

S. A.
28.5.96.

W. W. D.
1.6.96

Apparently it was the Chairman's fault entirely. He neglected until the close of the year was at hand to send reminders and to take any action and then he began to bombard the manager with telegrams which were entirely unnecessary. He could easily enough have sent a number of letters which at the outside could not have taken two days in transit.

It is submitted that the Manager of the E. C Railway should not pay. The expenditure was absolutely unnecessary.
