FOR ORDERS.

In the Government orders quoted by the President, the Government declined to sanc-tion the sales of certain lands on the grounds that ^{in five cases} they do not form part of the actual road-way and cannot therefore be held to vest in the Municipal Commissioners under Sec 233 of Act I of 1884, and that in two others the grant of the lands would reduce the width of the streets to an inconvenient extent.
It is not understood what "definite rules" on the subject are required by the President nor will it be easy for the Revenue Department to furnish the Commissioners now with a list of all lands not vested in the Commisas
