Taluk Board Office
Oratnad 26th February 96

From,
W. B. Ayling Esquire,
President
Taluk Board
Kumbakonam.

To,
The President,
District Board,
Tanjore.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit the following proposals for revising the Union ~~union~~ limits of Shiyali.

2. As per notification published in the Fort Saint George Gazette dated 5th May 1886, Shiyali Union comprises the revenue villages of Vadapathi-Melpathi and Edakudi Vadapathi

3. Vadapathi Melpathi or Shiyali vattam as per old Revenue accounts consisted of (1) the entire revenue villages of (1) Shiyali (2) Erinjimangudi and (3) Konathalapadi. House Tax is being collected in Shiyali village alone and the exclusion of the latter two villages from the Union is probably due to the fact that they are about 1½ miles north of Shiyali and not likely to share in the benefits of the Union. These are separated by an unbridged channel called Poravoikal and have no road communication. Erinjimangudi with its 2 hamlets Pulichakadu and Nithiyavanam contain 45 houses and 285 inhabitants and the receipts from House Tax will amount to Rs 22-0-0. Konathalappadi is an Inam village consisting of 12 houses and 64 inhabitants; the house tax collections will amount to Rs 7-8-0

likely

4. Edakudi Vadapathi or Velur is at a distance of 4 miles South of Shiyali. Though this is an important village by its temple and periodically visited by pilgrims, yet from its remoteness it is not possible to keep close supervision over the scavengering staff etc by the Chairman who is a Medical Officer at Shiyali. This has a population of 3844 with 779 houses and the receipts from House Tax amount to Rs 409. There are 2 members in this village of whom one is the village Munsiff and the other a merchant. It is not even possible to make this a Minor Union in as much as there is a difficulty in securing a Chairman and Members, the villagers being almost all dependants of the temple. One scavengering cart and 2 sweepers are working in the village at a cost of Rs 264 a year.

There

There are also a few lights. In its present condition it is desirable to exclude this village altogether from the Shiyali Union leaving the scavengering establishment to work under the supervision of the Revenue Officers as has been done in other villages under this Board and to include the villages of (1) Tadalancovil and Kaivilanjeri in its stead. The Special Committee to whom the general question was referred recommended the exclusion of Velur village.

5. Tadalancovil with Shiyali form practically one compact town and that one half should be in the Union but the other not is a strange anamoly. As per Revenue account, Tadalancovil consisted of the Revenue villages of (1) Tadalancovil (2) Pulikudi and (3) Kovilpathu. Tadalancovil proper with its two hamlets Koviltirukolakal and Ariyapillai Agraharam has a population of 1834 with 374 houses, and the probable receipts from House Tax amount to Rs 200. Pulikudi and Kovilpathu villages contain 322 inhabitants and 41 houses and the receipts from House Tax will amount to Rs 18-0-0. Pulikudi is one mile northwest of Shiyali on Road No 28 and Kovilpathu 1½ miles west. The latter village is separated by an unbridged channel. It is proposed to

to exclude these 2 villages from the Union. There are about 25 houses (2 tiled and 23 (thatched) west of the South Indian Railway line about a mile distant inhabited by Muhammadans. They belong to Tadalancovil village and are situated in the midst of paddy fields. In consideration of their remoteness and inaccessibility from the other portion of the proposed Union it is recommended that the portion west of the Railway line may be exempted from payment of all taxes and fees leviable under Section 63 of the Act. There is a village munsif for the Tadalancovil village.

(b) Kaivilanseri vattam consists of (1) Kaivilanseri and Tenpadi and is on Road No. 28 about 2 furlongs from the Shiyali Town. It contains 246 houses and 1157 inhabitants and the total collections from House Tax will amount to Rs 102. There is a village munsif for the whole vattam. Though this village is not now included in the Union yet it is like Tadalancovil treated as a part of the Union ~~as~~ so far as Conservancy is concerned although House Tax is not collected in it.

7. The total population of the proposed Union consisting of Shiyali, Tadalancovil and Kaivilanseri villages is 7980 with 1800 houses and the receipts from House Tax will amount to Rs 1282. The present population of Vadapathi Melpathi and Edakudi Vadapathi comprising the Union is 8833 and the receipts from House Tax from 1926 houses are Rs 1380. The Panchayat consists of 15 members and the maximum number of members of the proposed Union may remain the same.

8. The proposals were carefully considered by Mr. Clegg after consulting the local officers and were approved by the Taluk Board in their resolution No. 3 dated 29th November 1895. I have therefore the honor to request that you will be good enough to address Government to sanction the following changes:—

(1) to exclude Edakudi Vadapathi or Velur from the Union.

(2) to include Tadalancovil village and Kaivilanseri vattam within the Shiyali Union and

(3) to exempt the houses situated on the west of the Railway line and attached to Tadalancovil village from payment of all taxes and fees leviable under the Local Boards Act.

9. A copy of the Taluk Board's Resolution No. 3 dated 29th November 1895 and the necessary draft notification with a tracing from the Survey maps of

of the villages in question are enclosed.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.

READ—the following paper :—

From H. MOBERLY, Esq., President, District Board, Tanjore, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Vallam, 6th May 1896, Dis. No. 347-D.B.

In submitting herewith copy of letter, No. 1021, dated ~~2nd March~~ 26th Feby 1896, with its enclosures, from the President, Taluk Board, Kumbakónam, regarding the revision of the limits of the Shiyali Union, I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to sanction the taluk board's proposals and order the publication of the two notifications therewith submitted.

2. A copy of the district board's resolution, No. 37, dated 28th March 1896, approving of the proposals, and a statement showing the estimated receipts and charges of the Shiyali Union as proposed, received on 26th April 1896, are enclosed.

3. The President explains that the delay of nearly three months in taking action on the taluk board's resolution, dated 29th November 1895, was due to the pressure of work consequent on Mr. Clegg's illness.

ENCLOSURES.

From W. B. AYLING, Esq., President, Taluk Board, Kumbakónam, to the President, District Board, Tanjore, dated Oratnad, 26th February 1896, No. 1021-T.B.

It is proposed to exclude these two villages from the union There are about 25 houses (2 tiled and 23 thatched) west of the South Indian Railway line about a mile distant inhabited by Muhammadans. They belong to Tadalankovil village and are situated in the midst of paddy fields. In consideration of their remoteness and inaccessibility from the other portion of the proposed union, it is recommended that the portion west of the railway line may be exempted from payment of all taxes and fees leviable under section 63 of the Act. There is a village munsif for the Tadalankovil village.

6. Kaivilanseri vattam consists of Kaivilanseri and Tempadi and is on road No. 28 about two furlongs from the Shiyali town. It contains 246 houses and 1,157 inhabitants and the total collections from house-tax will amount to Rs. 102. There is a village munsif for the whole vattam. Though this village is not now included in the union, yet it is, like Tadalankovil, treated as a part of the union so far as conservancy is concerned, although house-tax is not collected in it.

7. The total population of the proposed union, consisting of Shiyali, Tadalankovil and Kaivilanseri villages, is 7,980 with 1,800 houses and the receipts from house-tax will amount to Rs. 1,282. The present population of Vadapadi-Melpadi and Edakudi-Vadapadi comprising the union is 8,833 and the receipts from house-tax from 1,926 houses are Rs. 1,380. The panchayat consists of fifteen members and the maximum number of members of the proposed union may remain the same.

8. The proposals were carefully considered by Mr. Clegg after consulting the local officers and were approved by the taluk board in their resolution, No. 3, dated 29th November 1895. I have therefore the honour to request that you will be good enough to address Government to sanction the following changes :—

(1) to exclude Edakudi-Vadapadi or Velur from the union ;
(2) to include Tadalankovil village and Kaivilanseri vattam within the Shiyali Union ; and
(3) to exempt the houses situated on the west of the railway line and attached to Tadalankovil village from payment of all taxes and fees leviable under the Local Boards Act.

9. A copy of the taluk board's resolution, No. 3, dated 29th November 1895, and the necessary draft notification, with a tracing from the survey maps of the villages in question, are enclosed.

Extract from the Proceedings of the District Board of Tanjore, dated 28th March 1896.

37. Read letter from the President, Taluk Board, Kumbakónam, No. 1021 of 1896, dated 26th February 1896, submitting proposals for revising the union limits of Shiyali.

Resolution.—Approved.
