Sir,

In reply to the enclosure from the Director of Public Instruction dated 9th May 96, which was to-day forwarded to me, I have the honor to state that Mr. Parsons, B.A., has been offered and has accepted the post of Assistant Master in this School, but that it has not yet been decided whether he shall join this term or after the summer holidays.

With regard to his qualifications he holds no teacher's certificate of any kind but undertakes to qualify for the L. T. at the earliest possible opportunity. Since proceeding to the degree of B.A., I understand that he has been employed for a few months as a teacher in Bishop Corrie's School, Madras. I believe that this is the only appointment that he

In Continuation of my Endorsement, No 5283, dated 8th May 1896, submitting to Government for sanction the proposal of the trustees of the Breek's Memorial School, Ootacamund, to entertain an additional teacher on Rs 100 for the school, I beg to submit in original the marginally noted papers from the Chairman, Municipal Council, Ootacamund, from which it will be seen that the place has been offered to and accepted by Mr Parsons, a graduate in Arts. Mr Parsons is not professionally qualified nor has he served the required period as a teacher in recognized schools. He cannot therefore be permanently appointed to the e place under Rule 3 Section IV of the Educational Rules. I beg therefore to recommend that in the vent of the new place being sanctioned by Government, Mr. Parsons be appointed sub pro tem, his confirmation being made to depend on his passing the L.T. degree Examination.

2. The Municipal Council will not be ntitled to any grant on account of Mr. Parsons.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
