the charges in the public works establishment having been already sanctioned in the Order dated 3rd September 1895 their sanction was not required again, and that the Submission of the proposition Statement was unnecessary.
The Order was received on the 1st April 1896, and the sanction of the Government was sought on the 15th May 1896.
It was not understood until the 1st April, that the Sanction accorded on the 3rd September 1895 was to be considered as a permanent arrangement. I have the honor to be,
Sir,
