If entitled to the leave applied for, under the Leave Code and if the exigencies of the service would permit of the indulgence at this season of the year, the leave may be allowed.

At a time when the President is going on privilege leave and all the principal appointments of the Engineer, Asst. Engineer, and Health Officer are being filled up by the acting incumbents to allow the Revenue Officer also privilege, is, I think most detrimental to the interests of the Municipality. But if the leave applied for be owing to ill-health it cannot be helped but to allow it on the production of a Medical ----- Certificate.

Current No. 1770 m of 1896, dated 18th June from ~~the~~ do. do.

FOR ORDERS.

With the first of the letters read above the President of the Municipal Commission, Madras, forwards an application from Diwan Bahadur J. Ramasamy Chettiar, the Revenue officer, for three months' privilege leave from the 1st July 1896, with the remarks of the Commissioners thereon. Only Eleven of the 32 Commissioners have expressed their opinion, ten being in favor of the application, and one against it. It cannot therefore be said that the leave in this case has been recommended by the Commissioners, as required in Sec. 45 of Act I of 1884, as amended by Act II of 1892. The President has already been granted leave for the same period.

2. The second enclosure is an application for the place of Revenue officer from Mr. R.Rg. Lake Venkatapathi Nayudu

There is a good deal in what the C.S. says as to the advisability of not compelling Ramasami Chetti to wait for his leave until the Pres.t returns, which would ordinarily be the obvious thing to do. Perhaps therefore he had better be granted his leave.

As to the man to act for him, that is for M.R. - I observe, however, that Venkatapathi Naidu must be an old man, for he says that his service has recently been extended for one year, so that he will probably not be the best man to fill the place now & to do outdoor work which is believed to be much required, & will not be a suitable person to fill the permanent vacancy which will occur when Ramasami Chetti retires at the end of next March, as already decided on. I should say therefore, that the present would be a good opportunity to try the man whom it may be proposed to appoint permanently in March next & would suggest to M.R. that this might be done.

There can be no doubt why the leave has been applied for. The Revd Mr is aggrieved at not being appointed Visitor for Col Inspr and does not wish to serve under Mr Ellis.

It is presumed that the application was circulated as usual to all the Comrs and that those who recorded their remarks agreed in the decision.

It is of course inconvenient that an experienced man such as Ramaswamy Chettiar should be absent while Col Inspr is but it is submitted that it is better for the administration of Local Affairs that the responsibility of commencing the proceedings

I think Mr. Ramaswami Chettiar may have his leave, although I consider that, in asking for it at the present juncture, he is not displaying a good and loyal spirit.

I shall perhaps Venkata Rathi wish to put. I appreciate the Hon. Mr. Bliss remarks, but it is a great advantage to have a man who has acted before. And when it becomes necessary to fill the post permanently, we can try the powers of a committee by putting him on probation.

given his leave. If refused he would only sulk and be best to forward Mr Ellis and bring him to Trichy and in this he would be backed by nearly all the Comrs. What his disposition is is evinced by his conduct in the matter referred to in the papers on top of the file in the accompanying confl Packet.

The main objection for the plaintiff cited before and as far as I am aware did Satisfactorily work. He is a trained & experienced accountant
