Deposition given on the 1st June 1896, before the first class Revenue Inspector of Madura firka, by Syed Sikkandar Sahib, residing in the Pallivasal Street adjoining the East Masi Street.

Government wish to buy an extent of 5000 square feet of garden land in S. no. 280, lying South of the Woddai's huts and north of the barber's land (west of West Veli Vedi). I am not willing to part with it, as this will interfere with the rest of the garden. As there are nunjah lands close by, and as there exists a latrine at present near it, there is no necessity for another latrine at that place. I am not prepared to sell the land for any amount whatever.
