During the official year 1894-95 several Board Schools were brought under the Law, telling Davis' little number of pupils of the number of years as compared with the previous year. The two schools, Hemmingsdale and Hemmasdale, in the Chiltern valleys which were closed under the School in the previous year of having been, nearly examined during 1894-95. They were closed to avoid School. Since the decade, under the Board had of undisturbed School as compared with 1893-94. The number and strength of the undisturbed School is said to be fluctuating as the Educational Committee have no cash at over them.

Subject.

Statement showing the progress
of Paichama Education in the North Arcot District for 1894-95.

Order No. 1301 Lms D 18/7/96

Recorded with the following remarks:—

(1) From Column 2 of the statement
it appears that the number of Board Paichama schools rose from seven to fourteen, but in para 50 of the President's administration report for 1894-95, it was stated that it rose from ten to eighteen. The discrepancies should be explained.

(2) The delay of nearly a year in the submission of this statement should be explained.
