In conformity with the order contained in paragraph 12 of G. O. Nos 155 A, 155 B. m. Local and municipal dated 15th February 1888, that "in future the house and land Tax Registers of every municipality shall be revised at least once every five years." the municipal council have resolved to revise the House Tax and Land Tax so far as the paramba Taxes are concerned, and propose to employ 5 Clerks for revising the Registers in two months, in their resolution dated 6th May 1896, No. 5 hereunder Subjoined.

Present.

revision of taxes in this municipality.

" The appointment of 5 Assessing Clerks at Rs 7 each for 2 months is sanctioned subject to the approval of

2. The House Tax Registers of this municipality were revised last in the official year 1891-92, and the Land Tax Registers in 1888-89 and the Assessment recalculated in 1891-92. The revision of Land Tax has not been taken in hand owing to the fact that the Council are of to Government from year after year.

3. Under these circumstances, I beg to request that the Government will be
