No 221

From
M. R. P. V. Narayana Menon
Chairman
Municipal Council
Tellicherry

To
The Chief Secretary to Government Fort St George through the Sub Collector of Malabar Tellicherry.

Sir,

With reference to para (3) of G.O. dated 21st March 1896, No 499. M, reviewing the Budget of this Municipality for the current year I have the honor to submit revised proposals under Grant II pertaining to Primary Education for the current year. From the Council's resolution dated 3rd June 1896 (Copy enclosed), it will be observed that it is proposed to retain one Hindu school and all the nine Mappila schools under Salary Results system.

2. The Assistant Inspector of schools West Coast Division to whom the subject was referred prior to its reconsideration by the Council proposes in his endorsements in 3026/2330 and 3027/2331, the retention of five Hindu 22-5-96 and 22-5-96, and seven Mappila schools under Salary Results system. But as Government has expressed its opinion in favour of retaining all the Mappila schools, and in the interests of the education of that community, which is still in its rudimen-tary stage, it has been thought desirable to maintain all the Mappila schools. While doing so, financial considerations have prevented the Council from accepting the Assistant Ins-pector's proposals with regard to the Hindu schools, and hence

hence it has been constrained to adhere to its former proposals of retaining only one Hindu school under Salary Results system.

3. The following statement shows the original Budget and the present revised allotments for Salary Results, and the Pure Results schools as proposed by the Council.

Original proposals			Revised proposals

The total viz Rs 4,310 in round numbers under the present revised scale, (Rs 2,810 for Salary Results and Rs 1,500 for Pure Results schools) exceeds the original allotment by Rs 1,510, and the allotment proposed by Government by Rs 1,310.

4. The total under Grant II. will, if the revised proposals are sanctioned by Government come to Rs 17,820, and consequently the closing balance of the year year, being decreased by Rs 1,310, added to the total under Grant II, will amount to Rs 240.

 Sir,
