Sir,

With reference to Dr. O. 6th May 1891 No 408 R, it may, I presume, be taken for granted that no acquisitions under the Land Acquisition Act are necessary in regard to lands for which compensation had been ~~and~~ otherwise arranged for and paid prior to its issue. But at least on one subsequent occasion, land has been taken up by the Municipality of Ootacamund, otherwise than under the Act. It appears to me doubtful whether, when a Municipality only requires to lay pipes under certain lands and does not need to acquire them, but only to exercise such rights in regard to such pipes as are provided for by the Municipal Act, equally whether the land belongs to the Council or to private parties; it seems, I think, doubtful whether whether in such cases, Government desires the invariable acquisition under the Act of long strips of land, all length and no breadth running through inhabited portions of a town. It does not appear to me that this order leaves no option to Municipal and District authorities. Perhaps Government may be pleased to allow that all cases which have been quietly settled up to date may rest in status quo. But still it seems doubtful, whether merely in order to lay pipe underground, it is necessary invariably to acquire under the Act and I have the honour to ask for orders on the point.

I have the honour to be
