To The Chief Secretary to Government,

Sir,

I have the honor to request that the Government will be pleased to sanction the levy of house-tax on the houses in the Bappanapalli village comprised in the Krishnagiri Union. I submit copies of the resolutions of the Taluk and District Boards approving of the proposal.

Enclosures: 5

2. Bappanapalli is a principal village having a separate Village Munsiff and it was included in the Krishnagiri Union under G.O dated 29th January 1896, No 132. L. F.

3. In G.O dated 7th May 1886, No. 503. L. F.

at half the maximum rates in the aforesaid Union including the village of Kappanapalli, but subsequently, in G.O dated 26th July 1886, No. 862 L. Mis, the above village was exempted from the tax under section 60³ of the Act.

4. The population of Kappanapalli is 603 as per census of 1891 and it is only $\frac{1}{2}$ a mile from the Union centre. The number of houses which will have to pay tax is 91 and the estimated annual receipts therefrom amount to Rs. 34.

6. A map showing the position of the village and two draft notifications one for levying house-tax in the village and the other cancelling its exemption from payment of the tax are enclosed.
