No. 377m dated 5th march 1896 (A) from the Subcollector's letter in No. 577m dated 30th march 1896 (B). It appears that the two villages in question viz. Sellaian and Kiluvattur, formed part of the Trinamalai Municipal Union, but that a portion of the

The petition state as follows:-

The petitioners learn that their village has been included in the Trinomalai Municipality and that various taxes are to be collected from them. The petitioners village is at a distance of a mile & a quarter from the kasba. It pays a beir of Rs 1500 and contains only 129 houses. There are about 600 inhabitants all of whom are poor the majority living by cooly work. They already find it difficult to pay the assessment on their land and if under such circumstances municipal taxes are collected from them they will all become helpless paupers. They therefore pray that their village may not be included in the Trinomalai Municipality and that no taxes may be imposed upon them.
