The petition now shown to me is the one I sent to the Taluk Board President. The paramba on which a Taluk Board Chaithram has been built in Channinda paramba is my Jeevam. This petition was presented with a view to get the Jeevam value well through tak N. 2 the site on which the shop stands will lose its attraction. I have no right over the shop. The price thereof is due to Mumtaz Nagar. The shop is built of mud walls, has no ceiling, and has a thatched roof. It is worth about Rs. 8 or 10. I am willing to part with the Jumma right of the whole of 1084 perukoms.

I should get Jumma value at the rate of 1 Re for the extent required for planting one Coconut tree. The ordinary method of planting Coconut seedlings is at the rate of 60 per acre. etc.
According to this calculation about 50 seedlings can be planted on the site in question. I should get Rs. 54 for it, as Jumma value. Though the site in question contains rock yet it is worth being planted up with Coconut seedlings after removing such rocks. The rocks are small.
The low-lying paramba adjoining this on the South has been drained for planting Coconut trees. I have seen the deposition dated 12th February 1893 now shown to me. This is what I deposed before the Adhikari of Mamunda Jumma. It was after I gave this deposition that the Board Chaturam and the kitchen were built.

The old Kucheri, ^{site} has now become vacant.
It contains 137 perukoms. As far as my information goes, it is my Jumma. It is my ancestral Jumma.
There are no documents to prove it. The surrounding lands are my Jumma property. It was given by my my ancestors to Government for building the Cutcherry. I don't remember the exact time.

It has been in the possession of Government ever since I attained the age of discretion.
The Jumma value of for this 137 perukoms should be fixed at the rate of 1 Re for the extent required for planting a Coconut tree taking 60 trees for an acre. My main request is that I should get Jumma value for 1084 perukoms. I have no objection to Government acquiring the land under the act or to the members of my family jointly executing a registered Jumma deed if necessary. The Government should pay for the cost of the document in addition to the Jumma value of Rs. 54. I cannot afford to meet the cost. It is enough if Government agrees to give me a purapad of 8 annas per annum for the site in question.
I only want that it should continue to be my Jumma property. I must get back the land when it is no longer required by Government.
When I said that the Government should agree (to give a purapad) I meant that I should get a document itself executed by Government. If that cannot be done, I am willing to part with the Jumma

The shop in the Kallarkunnu paramba where the Namunda museum Lutcherry and the Chattram stand is mine. It has cost me Rs. 25. It is about 5 or 6 years since it was built. It is a matter for regret to accept a Compensation of Rs. 18. I shall consent to part with it even for Rs. 22½. I have seen the statement of my uncle given before the acting Tahsildar on the 20th January 1894. It is the one given by my uncle himself. He admitted that it was purchased for Rs. 18. I am therefore willing to part with the shop accepting that amount as Compensation. Read over and acknowledged to be correct of
