Your

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that the trustees of the local Siv Temple keep an elephant for its use. It was taxed as other animals in the Town during the last year. The Temple trustees prayed for the remission of the tax after the expiry of the Appeal time. Hence their petition was rejected. The Temple trustees have

now put in a petition ^{praying} that the animal should not be taxed as it is solely intended for the use of the Temple and does not work for gain, the Council entertaining a doubt whether it can exempt it from the tax as the temple itself is exempted from tax, resolved at its meeting held on the 1st Instant to refer the question to Government for decision.

I have therefore the honor to request that you will be so good as to obtain the orders of Government on the subject.

I have the honor to be
 Sir,
 your most obedient servant
 Ramaswami
 Chairman
