1. I delayed this as I had an impression that this man's retirement was compelled as he was not fit to his conduct and good, viz to a district seem to be wise to reward a man of in different character as well as if he had been a man of unblemished character in his official capacity.
Suspended since 1st September 1893 he was "suspended until further orders pending enquiry with some charges," but the present Chairman just resigned that let them see no record to show what enquiries were held & with what result, & let since he took charge, the man's conduct was not bad though he was too old for his work.
