Order For orders.

The remarks of the chairman to which exception is taken by some of the councillors are certainly improper, though as observed by him, the councillors should have objected to them when the report was submitted to them for approval.

When the report was read at the meeting it is very probable that the councillors either did not hear or did not notice the remark complained of. The statement is probably quite true, but hardly what the chairman should have put in an adm't. report. Gov't has taken no notice of the remark in revising the report, & the matter might well have been dropped. The press might perhaps be informed that Gov't agrees with them in considering that such a remark should not have been made in an adm't. report, unless it were borne out by the facts adduced.

Sir,

With reference to your endorsement No. 272 dated 27th February last I have the honor to report that the Annual Report framed by me for 1894-95 was placed before the Council at their meeting where it was read Verbatim and was duly passed with the statements. The remarks referred to therein were also in the copy of the Report. If the Councillors present had considered my remark reproachful they could have easily ^{replied} ~~replied~~ the matters in their proceedings and had it removed but instead of doing any thing of the kind they wait till the receipt of the

S.O

S.D. and point out the remarks passed by the Council.

In the Report I do not attribute to any unworthy motives to the Councillors individually or collectively.
I merely stated what I thought was true, it was my conviction which may ^{have} ~~been~~ ^{erred} in judgement.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most Obedt. Servt.
